

$2 to $5 Fancy Vests, 75c. and $1.50.

Every white and fancy vest in the store will be closed out Saturday at 75c. and $1.50. At 75c. you get Vests formerly priced up to $2.50, and at $1.50 those formerly priced from $3 to $5. All sizes in something good to get.

Men's Stylish Overcoats, Formerly $23.50 to $35.00, Now $15.00.

Every high grade overcoat in the store (except the fur-lined coats), is marked with a farewell price—$15.00.

Clear-headed business men who like to invest their money on a profit-paying basis will doubtless be interested. There is plenty of Winter weather before us, but one of these coats laid away in a trunk will be earning you at the rate of 60 per cent. a year on the money invested. To prove this, note the market price of similar garments next fall.

Every detail from the style of the coat to the inner linings is beyond fault-finding. They are here in imported Meltons, Elysians and Kerseys; in black, Oxford and popular fancy mixtures. Almost all are silk lined.

There are exactly 137 coats in the lot, and to facilitate choosing we here-with submit a table of the sizes, and the quantity of each size on hand. You will notice that there are very few of the smaller sizes—the bigger men get the cream, for once:

Breast.	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	42	44	46	48	50
Quantity.	2	2	2	4	12	20	5	18	25	20	18	7	2

We earnestly advise those who are interested to come early.

$12.50 to $15 Suits and Overcoats for Men at $7.50

All the garments in the Clothing Store which were formerly priced at $12.50 and $15.00 have been grouped for quick clearance to-morrow at $7.50.

This means the bulk of the entire clothing stock, the staple, substantial, most popular grades in which every store tries to show the best values at the original prices.

At $7.50 every garment represents at least a $5 bill in your pocket—even though you have to wait until next fall to get all the value out of it.

THE SUITS are in all sizes from 33 to 46—regular and stout. Single and double breasted suits, made with care, correctly tailored to look well and keep on looking well. Serge lined, broad shoulder effects. Cut exactly like the higher priced clothing turned out in America. Browns, grays, stripes, overblends and black Tibets. Formerly priced at $12.50 and $15. Choice. $7.50

THE OVERCOATS are cut in the popular and comfortable long style, with a good choosing also in the more conservative medium lengths. The long coats are in black and Oxford gray. The shorter ones are in The long coats are in black and Oxford gray. Full assortment in sizes—not odds and ends. Former price chiefly $15; some were $12.50; choice on Saturday $7.50

Three Astonishing Values in Coats and Suits for Girls & Misses.

These prices would be low if it were Winter garments we were clearing out—what shall we call them on new, fresh, Spring coats and suits?

Misses' $6.50 Spring Jackets for $3.95.

The illustration gives a general idea of the style. We have seen nothing better produced for Spring wear. The coat is made of an all-wool covert cloth, with fancy notched collar, tailor stitched. Back and front are strapped, and there is a good quality satin lining throughout. It's a straight, honest $6.50 jacket, but we can sell it on Saturday (won't promise it beyond that day) for $3.95

Girls' $3.95 Spring Reefers, $1.95.

You never made $2 any easier nor with greater satisfaction. It's a serge reefer, and the serge is every bit as good quality as you would expect to find in a coat costing $4. Choice of blue, golf red and castor. A very neat, snappy, out-of-the-ordinary garment, with its elaborate military embroidery and brass buttons. Price on Saturday will be $1.95

Misses' Panama Eton Suits at $10.

The most satisfactory way to learn the real value of this suit is to come in here and look it over. We can't put a valuation on it in figures, because we haven't seen anything like it to compare it with. But it's a wonderfully good suit for the money—the kind that holds its shape and wears like iron. The style and finish will sell the suits as fast as they are seen. We don't say that this is a $15 suit, although we have seen many priced at $15 which we didn't think were nearly as good as this. Let it suffice that it's the best you'll find at the Saturday price of $10

5,000 $2 and $3 Umbrellas At One Dollar Each.

THIS is an annual event, and very little more than the mere announcement is necessary in our advertisement. More people know our February Umbrella Sales than there are umbrellas to supply them. The umbrellas came from two very well-known manufacturers who dispose of their overstock through us every year at this time in order to leave themselves free to put their time and space into the making of parasols. All Fresh and Perfect Goods—Not Odds and Ends or Styles Found Undesirable.

They are exactly the same umbrellas that we have in our own regular stock at $2 to $3 each at other times. Coverings are of "Ajax Waterproof Taffeta"—a fine, tough fabric that rolls closely and wears like sheet-iron. All umbrellas are fitted with cases and tassels.

The frames are the "Lock Paragon" and "Exeter Paragon"—no better are made. All have steel rods fitted with the convenient bulb runner.

The lot consists of 26-inch women's and 28-inch men's umbrellas.

And These Are the Handles Represented:

Hand chased rolled gold hooks in assorted designs on hardwood mounts.
Sterling caps, chased and plain, on Penang mounts.
Sterling caps on pearl posts.
Large silver caps on fancy etched mounts.
Gunmetal handles, in hook, bulb, ball and sweep shapes.
Gilt caps on pearl posts.
Pearl handles in flat, round, hook, loop and chunk shapes, silver or gilt mounted.
Clear, dark or clouded Cape Horn handles in opera, sweep and bulb shapes, silver ornamented.
Gilt fancy caps on partridge mounts.
Ebony, cut steel trimmed hardwood and vulcan handles for mourning.
Ivory and enamelled handles.
Princess handles, of Furke and Boxwood, with chased or plain sterling and gilt mountings.
Natural wood handles, in Boxwood, Furze, Ash, Weichsel, Borneo, Teak, Vine, Penang and Congo.
Various natural wood handles, with hand chased sterling or gilt caps, or with wire or applied ornamentation.

On the Main Aisle Saturday at $1.00 Each

WE GIVE "S. & H." GREEN TRADING STAMPS.

For the Baby's Picture— Or Your Own.

The Benedict Studio—seventh floor—will make 12 Carbonette portraits and one 16x20 black and white portrait of you or the baby for $3, provided the sitting is arranged for Saturday. The same careful work as if full price were asked.

Here Are the Best Skirts You Have Ever Seen at These Prices.

The first one is a broadcloth skirt at $10.50. It is the kind of skirt that women gladly pay $17.50 for in stores that get the last penny's worth of value, and at least $15 in ANY other store than this.

Made of the kind of broadcloth that costs $1.75 a yard—chiffon broadcloth—soft, but glossy. Beautifully finished. A treasure to find at 10.50

The next is a circular model in smooth black cloth. Side seams, double plaits front and back. An average $6 or $6.50 skirt for $4

Third, a stylish new circular skirt in worsted, with a black and white overplaid pattern—not the staring, sharp-contrast black and white, but a new and very effective "shadow plaid." Skirts like this are being sold elsewhere to-day at $10. Our price on Saturday will be 5.90

Good Candies In a Special Sale.

You can always satisfy your "sweet tooth" quite inexpensively if you buy here, but to-morrow we have lowered prices in a way that should create much activity in this popular section. CHERRIES from the cherry tree, in hard candy, a pound, 12c
OLD FASHIONED CHOCOLATE CREAMS, a pound, 12c
MOLASSES PEPPERMINT CUPS, a pound, 12c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES OR BONBONS AND CHOCOLATES, a pound, 20c
(Siegel Cooper Store, Main Floor Centre, 18th St.)

Exquisite White Lingerie Waists

We have selected these three models for special mention and sale on Saturday, but we have twenty other styles that deserve the distinction quite as well. To tell you which of these styles is the most attractive is as hard as for a mother to say which of her children she loves best.

Since we must make a selection, however, we select these:

Embroidered Demi-Sleeve Model at $1
This new demi-sleeve lawn model is cleverly designed with entire front of handsome Swiss embroidery and clusters of French tucks. Open and tucked back, new sleeves and attached stock collar; tucked and lace trimmed. Excellent value at 1.00

Lace Trimmed and Embroidered Model at $1.50.
A charming lingerie lawn model, as illustrated—entire front artistically designed, embroidered, lace trimmed and tucked; attached collar and demi-sleeves tucked and lace trimmed; a particularly good value at 1.50

Exquisite Lingerie, Batiste Model, at $2.25.
This dainty lingerie model is beautifully designed with pointed yoke, front back and attached row of German Val. lace insertings; blouse below yoke is ornamented with handsome embroidered panels, lace insertings and graduated French tucks; waist sleeves have deep cuffs, trimmed; remarkable value at $2.25

Also, at Attractive Prices, Women's Silk and Lace Waists.
New models in a variety of pretty styles in both trimmed and tailored effects; made of fabrics, both of silk and lace, such as the season dictates, popularly priced. $3.95, 5.90, 6.90 and upward.

Men's New Spring Hats at $1.
These are sample Hats used by salesmen of a well-known house to show retailers the new blocks and colors for spring wear. Having answered their intended purpose, they were offered to us and we bought them practically at our own price.

We offer them to-morrow at $1. Bear in mind that when you finally make up your mind to buy a spring hat (only a few weeks later) you'll pay $2 and $3 for hats that are no better in style and quality. (Siegel Cooper Store, Main Floor, East)

Another Great Sale of Trousers, at $1.50

These Trousers are cheap enough to wear for the hardest and roughest work, yet good enough to wear for daily dress in an office full of clothing critics. Can you get a better combination than that?

We can't understand why the maker let them go so cheap. But that's his look out. It must have been a strong reason that urged him to sell, for there are 2,000 of the trousers, and we doubt if the price we paid would buy the cloth alone.

All sizes, 30 to 44 waist—lengths from 28 to 37.

Fine Striped Worsteds. Cassimere and Tweeds. Black Cheviots and Corduroys. Novelty and Fancy Cheviots. Choice at $1.50

Final Clearance of Men's, Women's & Children's Winter Underwear.

Foot Mould Arch Supporting Shoes for Aching Feet.

Men and women who are much on their feet are often troubled with severe pains which shoot from the feet up through the whole body, or in other cases are confined to a grinding ache in the foot, instep and ankle.

Don't mistake these pains for rheumatism. They are due to the "breaking down" of the arch of the foot—to a trouble known in its final stages as "flat foot." We have produced a line of our well-known "Foot-Mould" Shoes with a scientifically designed arch support cleverly built into them. They are wondrously comfortable for any foot, and to weak feet a positive benefaction. Men's or women's styles. Our regular Foot-Mould Shoes are still $3.00.
